IMPOSSIBLE ESCAPE.

Absolute Truth with Collateral Proof From Which There Can Be No Appeal.

For the past three years we have had a standing offer of $5 000 for any statement of cure published by us which was not, so far as we know, bona fide. We did this in order that all readers might know the absolute truth of all our assertions and that they were based upon the value of our remedy and not upon idle words. gins' farm two miles east of Buford. Below we give a few extracts from recent letters, which speak for themselves. We will only add that we could furnish one hundred thousand more of a similar nature did occasion require, but we believe the entire American public is now convinced of the positive value of Warner's Safe Care.

Last Saturday night a week, while Mr. S. H. Shriver was from liothe, some one visited his stable, and holped himself to the best horse and one blind bridle and a halter and took a ride. Quite a sensation was raised in the morning when the report was circulated, and several heighbors gathered to examine tracks, etc. The mars was tracked some two or shree miles, when report came that she had been found in the Widow McClore's barnyard. The bridle rain and halter arrap had been carefully lifed up. It is supposed that the mars was rode a considerable distance, and part or mostly all the way test and then freed. The gentleman, if gentleman he may be called, played a mean little trick, and it is thought very good evidence gives a close to the marander, and if he is not exceed numissakably guilty, which wood loves a love of manufacture of the marander, and if he is not exceed numissakably guilty, which he be proven namistakably guilty, would place a dark spot on his character.
